

LALIQUE GROUP

MEDIA RELEASE – Ad hoc announcement pursuant to Art. 53 LR

Delisting of Lalique Group shares from SIX Swiss Exchange on 4 September 2024

Zurich, 28 August 2024 – Lalique Group SA (SIX: LLQ), which is active in the creation, development, marketing and worldwide distribution of luxury goods, submitted an application to SIX Exchange Regulation for the delisting of its shares following the successful closing of the public tender offer made by Silvio Denz. SIX Exchange Regulation approved this request on 27 August 2024. The shares of Lalique Group AG will be delisted from SIX Swiss Exchange on 4 September 2024.

The voluntary public tender offer made by Silvio Denz for all publicly held registered shares of Lalique Group (Lalique Group shares), with the exception of those shareholders who concluded non-tender agreements for their Lalique Group shares, closed on 19 July 2024, as planned. On 29 July 2024, Lalique Group submitted an application to SIX Exchange Regulation for the delisting of its shares, and this request was approved on 27 August 2024.

Following the decision of 27 August 2024 by SIX Exchange Regulation, 3 September 2024 was set as the final trading day for Lalique Group shares on SIX Swiss Exchange. The delisting of Lalique Group shares will take place on 4 September 2024.

The decision was published on the website of SER. The applicable regulation can be viewed here: DD-en.pdf \(ser-ag.com\)
